

Truckee Meadows Water Authority (TMWA)

is pleased to sponsor the following 2010 workshops promoting water-efficient landscaping.

Wilbur D. May Arboretum & Botanical Gardens 2010 Commonsense Gardening Series

Spring Sprinkler Tune-up Workshop

Saturday, April 10

9:00 - 11:00 a.m.

Rancho San Rafael Park, Ranch House

Join Washoe County's Regional Parks and Open Space Horticulture Assistant Phil Brazier from the May Arboretum in a two-hour workshop on how to turn on and tune up your sprinkler system. Learn how to troubleshoot problems, make repairs and make certain your sprinklers will be working efficiently.

Northern Nevada Native Plants

Wednesday, June 16

6:00 - 7:00 p.m.

Rancho San Rafael Park, May Arboretum Office

Join Lynda Nelson, Washoe County Park Planning Manager and former horticulturist for the May Arboretum in an hour-long educational plant identification tour. With 30 years working with native plants, Lynda will show you the ones that survive in our area, as well as ones that are used frequently with great success that use very little water. Don't miss this hands-on experience. Bring a camera, paper and pencil for taking notes.

Winterizing Sprinkler Systems

Saturday, October 23

8:30 - 10:30 a.m.

Rancho San Rafael Park, Ranch House

Homeowners, learn how to turn off your sprinkler system and how to protect pipes from breaking over the winter. Join Washoe County's Regional Parks and Open Space Horticulture Assistant Phil Brazier from the May Arboretum, in a hands-on workshop.

To register please call the Arboretum office at 785-4153.
